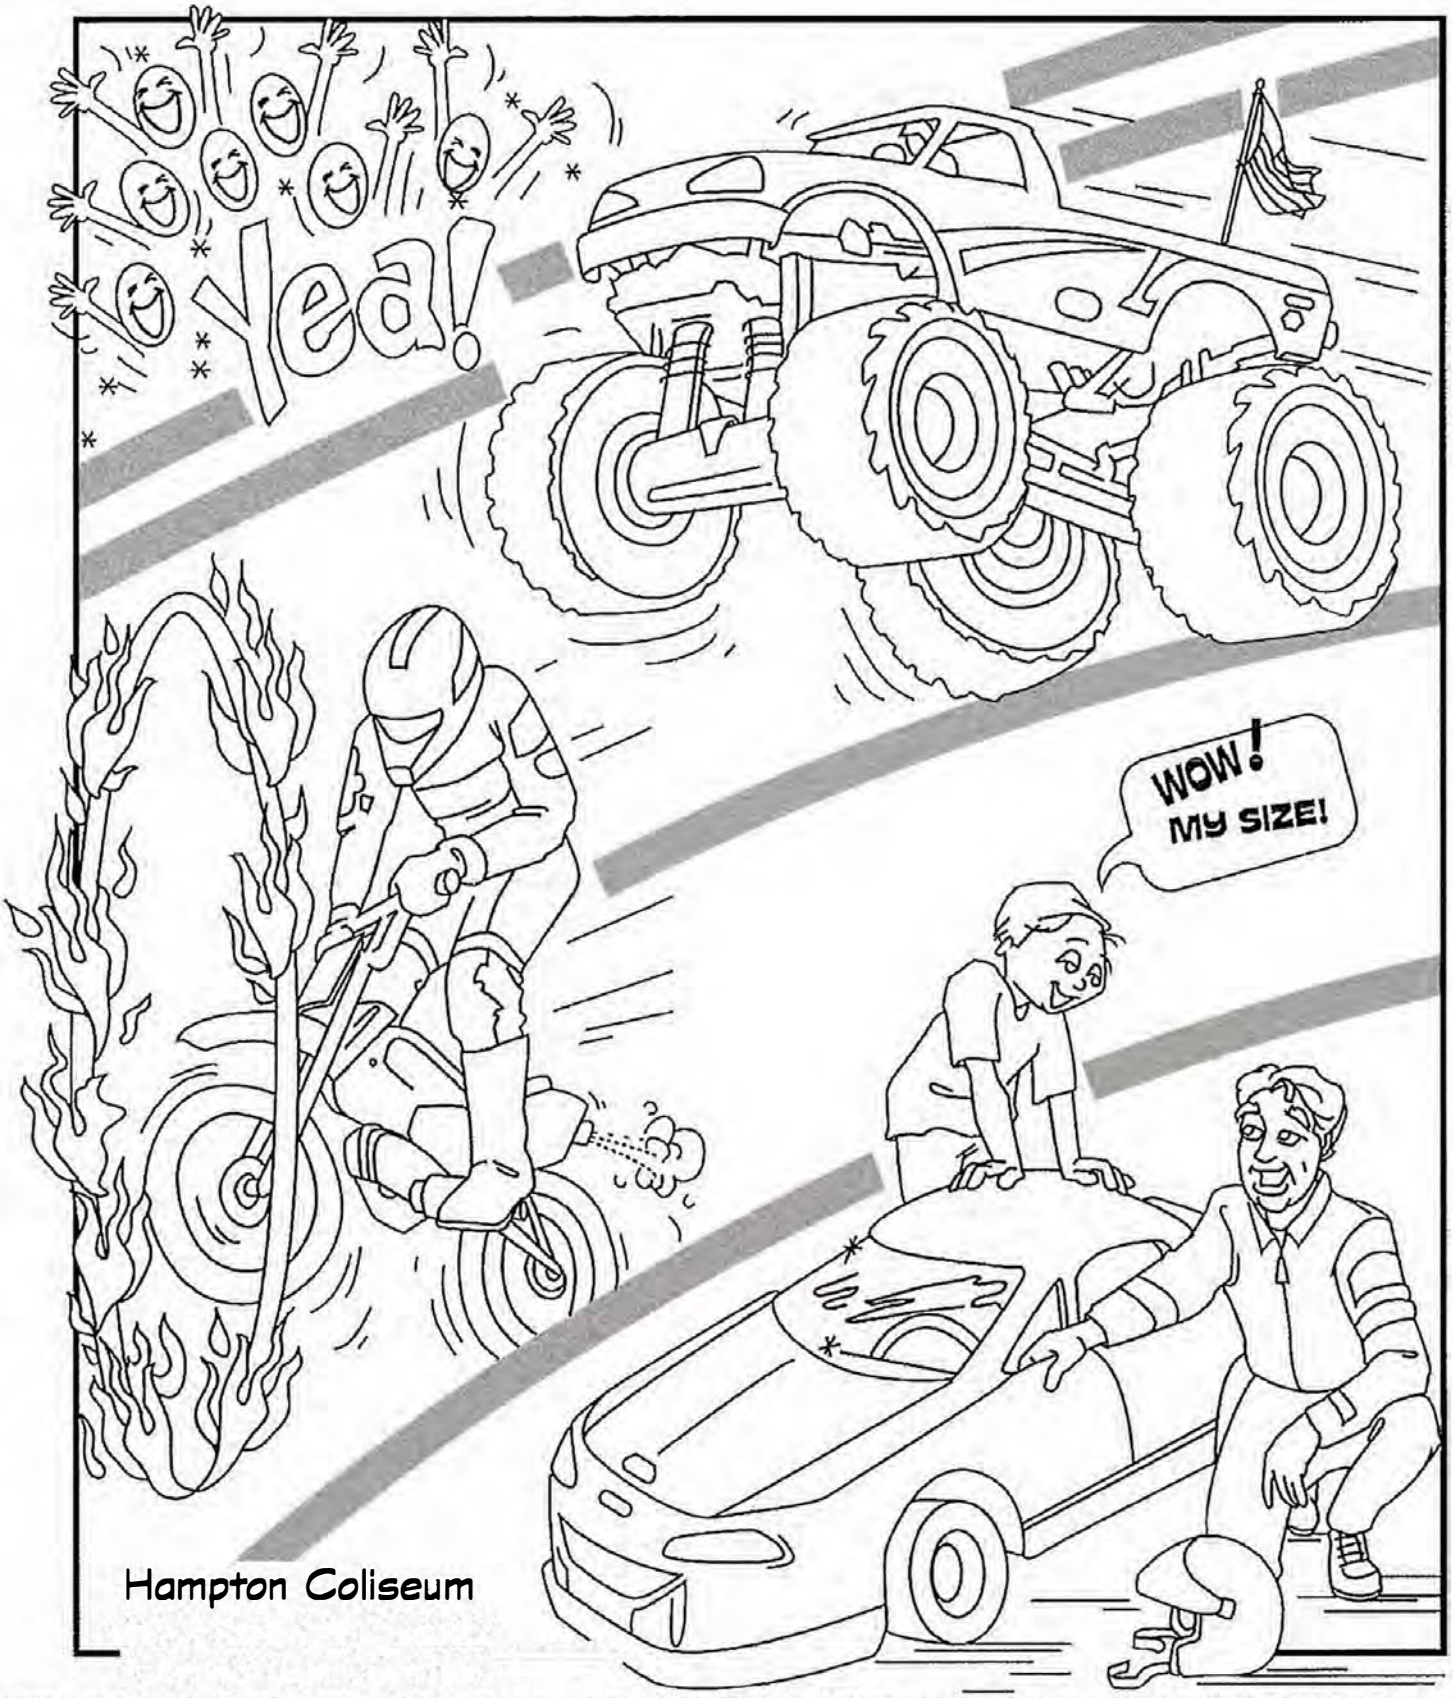
Home Activity Packet



Open since 1970, the Hampton Coliseum is proud to host all types of entertainment, including music festivals, racing, bull riding, rock concerts, comedy shows and everything in between. The coliseum is especially festive when lit up for the holiday season! (Calaring sheet pravided by the Hamptan Canventian and Visitar Bureau.)

Phoebus/The American Theatre

Named in 1900 for Harrison Phoebus, the community of Phoebus began as an isolated fishing village called Mill Creek for the body of water next to the little settlement. After the Civil War, the village became home to former Union soldiers, freed slaves and local watermen. In 1952, Phoebus became a part of the city of Hampton. Today, there's fun for the entire family at The American Theatre, built as a vaudeville house in 1908. (Coloring sheet provided by the Hampton Convention and Visitor Bureau.)

The Charles Taylor Visual Arts Center

For 63 years the Hampton Public Library was located in the building that now is home to The Charles Taylor Visual Arts Center and the Hampton Arts commission. It was built in 1925 and renovated as an arts center in 1989. The center features painting, sculpture, photography and art classes for all ages. (Coloring sheet provided by the Hampton Convention and Visitor Bureau.)
